Alage ATVT College is aspired to supporting its educational vision and mission by setting objectives and taking into account relevant educational, scientific and technical developments to persistently satisfy the needs and expectation of interested parties, based on EOMS (ISO-21001:2018) requirements. The College is striving to align its policy considering the purpose and context of the college and strategic plan to realize its mission and vision by

- Providing outcome based quality training to produce competent manpower required by the agricultural industries.
- Harnessing the agricultural industry with appropriate technologies through technology development and transfer.
- Fulfilling social responsibility through the provision of community services and conducting environmental protection activities.
- Conducting research and disseminating the findings, for practical use, to interested parties
- Delivering efficient and effective administrative services that support training/academic and operational excellence

Alage ATVET College recognizes that its long term success and strength depends on understanding and meeting the evolving needs and expectations of interested parties especially the trainees, the agricultural industry, governmental organizations, and the farming community. To this end the College is committed to:

- Continual improvement of its training/educational and support services
- Systematic monitoring, evaluation, and review of its processes and performance
- Transparent communication and active engagement with interested parties
- Compliance with applicable statutory, regulatory, and EOMS requirements
- Integrate climate-smart approaches (climate-conscious quality training)
- Manage intellectual property

This policy is documented, implemented, maintained, and communicated throughout the organization. It is made available to all relevant interested parties as appropriate and serves as a foundation for setting and reviewing the College's educational objectives.
